- Mystery of Resurrection

Mystery of Resurrection

- The Mystery of Resurrection is the teaching that when Jesus Christ comes in glory surrounded by angels for judgment, every person shall be resurrected from the dead—the righteous for an everlasting peace and inheritance, and the sinners for judgment and condemnation:
 - “For the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice, and shall come forth; those that have done good unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.”
(John 5:28-29)
- “The hour” when all shall rise from the dead is judgment day.
- Teaching the disciples on the Mount of Olives, Jesus told the disciples of the “voice” all the resurrected shall hear. /Matt 25:31-46/

Mystery of Resurrection

- God did not create us mortal, but man brought death upon himself through disobedience.
 - “For God made not death, neither has He pleasure in the destruction of the living. For He created all things that they might be: and He made the nations of the earth for health: and there is no poison of destruction in them, nor kingdom of hell upon the earth. For justice is perpetual and immortal. But the wicked with works and words have called it to them: and esteeming it a friend, have fallen away.” (Wisdom 1:13-16)
- God, through His loving mercy came down from heaven, and partaking our nature, made an atonement for our sins, and destroyed death by His own death, and gave us the glory and hope of the resurrection by His own resurrection.
 - “But now Christ is risen from the dead, being the first fruit for them that slept. For since by man came death, by man also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall be made alive.” (1 Corinthians 15:20 22)

Mystery of Resurrection

- St. Paul describes the manner and mystery of the resurrection as follows:
 - “Behold I show you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump. For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” (1 Corinthians 15:52)
- St Paul further writes that we must all change and rise in an incorruptible body, for the body that is corruptible shall not inherit that, which is incorruptible:
 - “For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality . . . Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, death is swallowed up in victory.” (1 Corinthians 15:53-54)

Mystery of Resurrection

- The Hope of Resurrection in the Old Testament
 - “Your dead men shall live together; with my body shall they rise. Awake and sing, you that dwell in dust: for your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.” (Isaiah 26:19)
 - “And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.” (Daniel 12:2)
 - “For You will not leave my soul in hell (in the grave); Neither will You suffer Your Holy One to see corruption.” /Psalm 16:10/

Mystery of Resurrection

- Significance of the Resurrection
 - Without the hope of the resurrection, the preaching of the gospel and spiritual contention is vain. That is why the St. Paul wrote the following to the Corinthians:
 - “But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain . . . And if Christ is not raised, your faith is vain; you are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable . . . And why stand we in jeopardy every hour? . . . If after the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantages it me, if the dead rise not?” (1 Corinthians 15:13-32)
